A benchmark example of low-maintenance living combined with a thoroughly modern design, this home blends up-to-the-minute style and a quality design with effortless ease. Sun-splashed interiors bring together sleek, smooth lines with refined detailing, offering a generous open plan living space, a separate lounge and four bedrooms, all staged over two levels. The master bedroom enjoys the convenience of an ensuite and there is an extra bathroom on each level, easily servicing the needs of the home. A double garage is another great asset, and so is the inclusion of a leafy alfresco courtyard and grassed expanse, adding instant appeal for those who love to get outside for a potter. A contemporary canvas of next-level appeal, here is your opportunity to secure a super-stylish home set back from the road, located on the border of sports ovals and within a short walk of Cardiff South Public School. Ramping up location appeal further, it places major shopping destinations, the John Hunter Hospital and Warners Bay's celebrated dining precinct minutes from the door. - Family home full of the latest design trends and quality built - Open plan living trumped by a statement kitchen and smooth alfresco access - Warm timber accents, stone benchtops, premium appliances and a mirror splash back adorn the kitchen - Separate top-level living room offers a quiet escape away from open plan living - Three of the four bedrooms are located upstairs, each has a ceiling fan and BIR - Three bathrooms including ensuite - all contemporary and finished to perfection, main with standalone bath - Ducted and zoned AC; split-system AC, expansive windows beaming in sunshine - Automatic double garage with internal access, laundry with outdoor access - Less than 3km to Cardiff CBD or Warners Bay, 2km to Cardiff station * This information has been prepared to assist solely in the marketing of this property.
